

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Pulley went to Leavenworth, Kansas, Tuesday after a visit here with Mrs. Pulley's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Curtis.

Whooping Cough.

In this disease it is important that the cough be kept loose and expectoration easy, which can be done by giving Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Mrs. P. H. Martin, Peru, Ind., writes: "My two daughters had whooping cough. I gave them Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and it worked like a charm."

Mrs. Claud Hicklin and daughter, Miss Cornelia, went to Kansas City Tuesday to spend the day.

Has a Good Opinion of Chamberlain's Tablets.

"Chamberlain's Tablets are a wonder. I never sold anything that beat them," writes F. B. Tressey, Richmond, Ky. When troubled with indigestion or constipation give them a trial.

John Chamberlain and Mr. and Mrs. Layton Barnett went to Kansas City Tuesday to attend the funeral of Mr. Chamberlain's brother.

We Love Work.

We are prepared to do better work and more of it than ever. Why half mix your concrete the old way? Let us mix your concrete the up-to-date way. We have the best mixer on the market. Your concrete does not cost you as much as it did the old way. Yet it is a hundred per cent better, because when we mix it, it's mixed. That's all.

JOHN L. ASHURST.

Cholera Morbus.

This is a very painful and dangerous disease. In almost every neighborhood someone has died from it before medicine could be obtained or a physician summoned. The right way is to have a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy in the house so as to be prepared for it. Mrs. Charles Enyeart, Huntington, Ind., writes: "During the summer of 1911 two of my children were taken sick with Cholera and Diarrhoea. I used Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy and it gave immediate relief."

Mrs. B. C. Comstock and daughter, Miss Catherine, returned Sunday evening to their home in Kansas City, after a visit here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Chiles.

Sour Stomach.

This is a mild form of indigestion. It is usually brought on by eating too rapidly or too much or of food not suited to your digestive organs. If you will eat slowly, masticate your food thoroughly, eat but little meat and none at all for supper, you will more than likely avoid the sour stomach without taking any medicine whatever. When you have sour stomach take one of Chamberlain's Tablets to aid digestion.

James L. Rice brought us Monday a sack of Jonathan apples that were in perfect condition. They had been kept in his outside cellar and were as fresh and juicy as the day they were picked.

Dr. J. F. Walsh returned Tuesday from a business trip to St. Louis.

ROLLA POLITICIAN INDICTED

Probe of Optometry Bill Brings Charges Against Joseph J. Crites —Furnished $2,000 Bond.

Joseph J. Crites, lawyer and politician of Rolla, was indicted recently by the Greene county grand jury in connection with the passing of the lower house of the state legislature at the last session of the Optometry bill. The offense charged against Crites is bribery. It is also charged he accepted employment from those behind the measure on a contingent fee, in violation of the Anti-Lobby Law.

The evidence against Crites was supplied by Dr. W. F. Donovan, an optometrist of Springfield, who handled the state optometric association's legislative fund and by H. H. Watts of Kansas City, president of the association.

Members of the association subscribed to a legislative fund after being informed that if their bill failed to pass their subscriptions would be returned.

Donovan and Watts testified before the St. Louis grand jury a week ago and officials determined that an indictment against Crites would have to be found in Springfield, if anywhere, because the agreement testified to was made there.

Accordingly they were summoned to appear at Springfield. Both testified.

The action against Crites is the first ever brought under the anti-lobby bill which was passed in 1907 during a crusade by Joseph W. Folk, then governor, to drive the lobby out of Jefferson City.

Crites has practiced in Rolla many years. He is 48 years old and has been active in Democratic politics in Missouri twenty years.

A warrant for Crites was issued by Judge Arch Johnson of the criminal court, following an investigation by the Greene county grand jury of an alleged agreement reached at Springfield and alleged to have been attended by Crites, at which certain things to be done to secure the passage of the Optometry bill by the last legislature were outlined.

Crites furnished bond of $2,000 for his appearance for trial in the criminal court there the fourth Monday in July. The bond was signed by John Kelly, a Springfield saloon owner. Crites would not discuss the charge.

SEND WARNING TO FARMERS

College of Agriculture Says Crooked Book Agents Are at Work Throughout the State.

The College of Agriculture is sending out a warning to farmers in the state that subscription agents who are at work in certain sections of Missouri have led the people to believe that they are members of the faculty of the College of Agriculture. In order to get subscriptions for farm papers it is said they have made false statements.

The College of Agriculture disclaims any responsibility for the statements made by such agents and is warning farmers to beware of subscription agents who give the impression that they represent the college. The college also asserts that it is not sending its bulletins to subscribers of any particular paper or publishing lessons in any particular paper, but is sending information free to farmers who apply for it.

Many members of the faculty of the University of Missouri are authors of text books used in the colleges and universities of the country. Some have written more than two books and others have their translations into foreign languages for use in colleges and universities abroad.

Dean F. B. Mumford of the College of Agriculture has recently published a book on "The Breeding of Animals" which is classified in the Rural Science Series. He is the third University man to publish a book this year.

Ruth Law at State Fair. The management of the Missouri State Fair has engaged Miss Ruth Law, the famous aviatrix, to fly at Sedalia on September 24, which is Press Day. The management also announces that the editors will have the finest entertainment ever given newspapermen at any state fair in the United States on Sunday, September 23.

Plan to Offer Keet Reward. Arch A. Johnson, criminal judge at Springfield advocates the raising of a substantial reward to offer for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the murderer of Baby Lloyd Keet. This followed the receipt of a letter from a Kansas Citian whose name was withheld, offering to start a fund with a $100 check. Friends of J. Holland Keet have discussed raising a fund of from $5,000 to $15,000 to be used in running down the kidnappers and to offer a reward of $5,000 with a promise of immunity to any member of the band, except the actual murderer, who will "peach" on the gang.

Motor Spill Killed Farmer. John Cozad, a farmer, was killed and Bert Cozad, also a farmer, badly injured when a motor car in which they were returning to Orient, Ia., from St. Joseph, went off a bridge near Maryville. Cozad was taken to a hospital in Maryville.

Rich St. Louis Cigar Man Dead. Frank R. Rice, a wealthy St. Louis cigar manufacturer, died of heart disease at his summer home near Port Huron, Mich., the other morning. Rice was about 75 years old.

Don't Cross The Bridge 'Till You Come to It.

If you are one of those persons perpetually fearing that something awful is going to happen, read this—it will, or ought to, do you good. Its authorship is attributed to a French or British soldier in the trenches:

"I have your letter in which you appear to be afraid of being called to the colors while the war is on. I really don't see any reason of being afraid."

"If you will be called to the colors, why two things are likely to happen—either you will not be mobilized or you will be mobilized. If you will not be, why you will have no reason to complain. If you will be, well, then, two things are likely to happen—either you will be left in territorial service or you will be sent to the front. If left in territorial service, why you will have no reason to complain. If you are sent to the front, well, then, two things are likely to happen—either you will be left in the rear or you will be sent to the firing line. If you are left in the rear, why you will have no reason to complain. If you are sent to the firing line, well, then, two things are likely to happen—either you will escape unharmed or you will be wounded. If you escape, you will have nothing to complain of. If you are wounded, well, then, two things are likely to happen—either you will be wounded only slightly or seriously. If slightly why you will have nothing to complain of. If wounded seriously, well, then, two things are likely to happen—either you will recover, or you will die. If you recover, why you will have nothing to complain of. If you die, well, then, you will be unable to complain at all."

"So do not complain, as you have no reason for doing so."
